

Test 2 - Literary Reading

This is a test in reading. You will read a passage and do multiple-choice items. As an example, read the passage text for Sample A. Then find the answer for the item below the passage.

Sample A

Through his giant office window John observed the street below. Tiny suited people scurried through the corridors of the city core, rewarded intermittently with a cup of coffee or the daily paper and then deposited by revolving doors into glassy skyscrapers.

"Mr. Caldwell is here to see you." The familiar voice paused for a response.

"Thank you," John answered, "Let him in." His morning appointment had arrived.

Sample Question:

The imagery in the first paragraph is one of

1. rats in a maze.
2. horses in a race.
3. people in a race.
4. people in a building.

Answer: A