Giscome Chronicle: The rise and demise of a sawmill community in central British Columbia, 1912-1976

by J. Kent Sedgwick

CNC History Series

2008. ISBN-13: 978-0-921087-39-7.
72 p. Photos. Index

This book covers the history of the community of Giscome, one of 40 small sawmill towns that flourished for a time along the "East Line," the railway line east of Prince George. Historical geographer Kent Sedgwick presents a timeline of the major events affecting the community from 1912 until 1976 when the sawmill and town was closed. The book includes black and white photos, and a colour photo section with comparison views of some of the buildings and landscape before and after the townsite closure.
