

Criminology

Graduates of the Criminology Diploma program are employed in nearly every aspect of the justice system. Work activities might include protecting the public, detecting and preventing crime, probation supervision, social advocacy, counselling or conducting research.

Criminology students are sought after for their knowledge of crime, their understanding of the Canadian legal system, and their critical thinking skills. A background in criminology is a strong foundation for a wide range of eventual careers, including:

- ⇒ Counsellor
- ⇒ Corrections Officer (both Federal and Provincial)
- ⇒ Criminologist
- ⇒ Criminal Forensic Investigator
- ⇒ Fraud Prevention Officer
- ⇒ Law Enforcement (including RCMP, municipal police forces, Canadian border services, sheriff services)
- ⇒ Parole Supervision
- ⇒ Policy Analyst
- ⇒ Private Investigations
- ⇒ Probation Officer
- ⇒ Researcher
- ⇒ Victim Service Worker
