

Spill (Fuel) Response

Course Overview

A hands-on field training course that prepares you for fuel related spills that enter the environment. Learn how to properly assess an incident, who to notify with what information, chemical characteristics, how to meet due diligence, containment techniques for water in creeks, ditches, other tributaries and land based spills, and clean up and disposal issues.

Fees

$241

Ready to Register?

Phone 250 692 1747.

4 hours

Dates TBA

2019I CEFA 186 CI501

Did you know?

Oil spills have a number of effects on the environment and economy. On a basic level, oil spill effects will damage waterways, marine life and plants and animals on the land. The impact of oil spills can also ruin the infrastructure and economy of a particular area with the long-term effects being felt for decades.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

P 250 692 1747

E piriej@cnc.bc.ca

cnc.bc.ca/burnslake

College of New Caledonia

CNC

Community & Continuing Education