

Job Options Program

Tackle employment with FREE training!

March 14, 2022- May 27, 2022

This full time, 11-week program will introduce and prepare individuals who are ages 18 yrs and older and, precariously or unemployed, for a variety of industry focused employment roles. This program includes industry certifications and training, an essential skills component and explores many facets of job readiness throughout.

Program Details

You will gain core certificates with a focus on, but not limited to:

- Ground Disturbance Level 201
- S100/S185 Training
- Occupational First Aid Level 1 & TE
- H2S Alive
- Pipeline Construction Safety Training
- Confined Space Entry Monitor

You will receive theoretical and practical training, in a blended, in-class and online capacity, with a focus on developing skills necessary for entry-level Industrial job opportunities.

Program Supports Include:

- Tuition, fees and books
- Training allowance
- CNC Job Coach & WorkBC Services
- 60-hour practicum placement
- Ability to protect your E.I.

Ready to apply?
Register with WorkBC.

P 250 997 7208 or 250 997 7200
E workbc@cnc.bc.ca
or cncmackenzie@cnc.bc.ca
cnc.bc.ca/mackenzie

Canada

Funding provided by the Government of Canada through the Canada-British Columbia Workforce Development Agreement.

College of New Caledonia
CNC