

Joint Occupational Health & Safety Committee Fundamentals Online

Course Overview

This introductory course is designed for new OH&S committee members or those members seeking a refresher. You will examine the occupational health and safety committee, its role, selection of members, activities, conduct of meetings, writing recommendations, planning educational leave, and reaching committee objectives. This course meets the new (Provincial) mandatory minimum training requirements for new joint committee members.

Our new online offering will be a combination of synchronous and asynchronous delivery that can be completed in one day from the comfort of your own working space.

You will receive access to four online modules prior to the course start. You can complete them at your own pace or during the morning of the course from 8:00 am - 12:00 pm. From 12:30 pm - 4:30 pm you will join the instructor and fellow classmates in a collaborative online session to complete the course.
