

Koo hoonzoo
'et hots'dul'eh

Cultural Competency Workshop

Course Overview

The Aboriginal Cultural Competency workshop will provide an overview, at the introductory level, of fundamental concepts of aboriginal culture. The facilitation and learning styles promoted in this workshop are reflective of First Nations cultures and mainly draw on examples from the Carrier Nation. It is intended to increase awareness and knowledge of Aboriginal people; to build stronger relationships, nurture new ones, and to share with one another, of our many backgrounds and cultures.

Additional Information

Sarah John leads a 5-hour Aboriginal Cultural Competency workshop available to your company or organization.

Ready to Register?

Contact us today to find a Cultural Competency workshop or to book one for your company or organization.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

P 250 567 3200

E nechako@cnc.bc.ca

cnc.bc.ca/vanderhoof

Did you know?

There are more than 600 registered First Nation communities in Canada? More than half of them are located in British Columbia and Ontario.

College of New Caledonia

CNC

Community & Continuing Education