

Street Humanities

AN EXPLORATION INTO EDUCATION

Street Humanities is offered in partnership between An Association Advocating for Women and Children (AWAC), the City of Prince George and the College of New Caledonia.

Street Humanities

EMPOWER LIVES BY VOLUNTEERING

Street Humanities is an empowerment program that brings marginalized, multibarriered men and women into the classroom. You can help these students begin a journey of transformation through education and provide a platform for increased self esteem through a sense of belonging to the college and community.

Who can volunteer? Anyone with expertise to share.

When and Where? 12 hours of instruction over a 4 week session (Tuesdays, Wednesdays and/or Thursdays, 5:30pm - 8:30pm) at the Prince George campus.

Who to contact: Kim Bennett at bennettk17@cnc.bc.ca or local 5426

2020 schedule

5:30pm - 8:30pm (including breaks)
