

CACG Level 1 Chainsaw Basics

Course Overview

Join Al, our top-notch instructor who grew up working with chainsaws, for this hands on course. You will learn: basic personal safety, worksite safety requirements and practices, as well as limbing, tapping, and bucking practices for chainsaws and other equipment.

Fees

$1375

Additional Information

Students must supply their own CSA approved safety work boots. All other equipment will be provided.

Ready to Register?

Phone 250 692 1700 or drop by the main office during business hours to register in person.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

P 250 692 1700

E lksdist@cnc.bc.ca

cnc.bc.ca/burnslake

24 hours

April 14 - 16, 2020

8:30 am - 4:30 pm

2020S CEFR 174 CI501

Did you know?

This certificate is required by Seismic Line Cutters working in the oil and gas industry, and is also recognized in the forestry, mining and construction industries.

College of New Caledonia

CNC

Community & Continuing Education