

International Cooking Workshop

3 Hours Offered In-Person

Workshop Overview

$129

This workshop promotes cultural exchange through cooking by bringing together international students and the local community. Participants will learn to prepare a traditional dish from around the world while exploring the cultural significance of ingredients, cooking techniques, and culinary traditions. The workshop will be led by a Chef Instructor, with CNC international students actively participating as cultural liaisons, sharing personal insights and guiding discussions on the dishes being prepared.

All materials are provided.
