

Serving it Right with Pandemic Training

Course Overview

Serving It Right is British Columbia's responsible liquor sales and service program for industry workers, that everyone involved in the sale and service of liquor has to take. It is designed to help make sure that the service and sale of liquor is done according to law and in a way that keeps customers, guests and others safe from alcohol-related harms. The course provides effective techniques to prevent problems related to the service of liquor. You will also receive Pandemic Training with a Serving It Right lens where we will use current guidelines and information.
