

Short Order Cook

Specialize in preparing quick & delicious meals with this tuition-free program!

A short order cook prepares food that is simple, quick, and easy to cook. They will typically work in casual restaurants, diners, and cafes where the focus is on providing fast service and simple meals, all while working in a fast-paced kitchen setting.

This 8-week program from January 30 - March 24, 2023 will provide the essential skills for students to gain confidence working in a restaurant kitchen, with exciting bonus content focused on traditional Indigenous meals such as bannock tacos!
