

A Path Towards Collective Reconciliation: A Truth & Reconciliation Workshop

Course Overview

FREE

This workshop will focus on the various elements of Truth, as well as Reconciliation in connection with historical and contemporary circumstances of Aboriginal people in Canada and in the region.

Drawing on experiences outlined in the Truth and Reconciliation Commission, this workshop will provide an opportunity for learning and understanding the various aspects of truth in connection to historical circumstances of Aboriginal people.

This will be followed by interactive workshop activities, a guest speaker and a Q&A period, all highlighting a path towards collective Reconciliation.

Free luncheon will be provided.
