

From Broadaxe to Clay Chinking
Chapter 23: From Giscome to Hutton

The old dairy remains at Giscome

From Broadaxe to Clay Chinking
Chapter 23: From Giscome to Hutton

The Paupst house at "Sunny Hill" farm

From Broadaxe to Clay Chinking
Chapter 23: From Giscome to Hutton

St. Frederick's Catholic Church at Giscome

From Broadaxe to Clay Chinking
Chapter 23: From Giscome to Hutton

The Bearman house at Newslands, now folding up like an accordion

From Broadaxe to Clay Chinking
Chapter 23: From Giscome to Hutton

Bearman blacksmith shop remains

From Broadaxe to Clay Chinking
Chapter 23: From Giscome to Hutton

Bearman shake-roofed barn. Newlands

From Broadaxe to Clay Chinking
Chapter 23: From Giscome to Hutton

Ego Bjorklund's log house, covered over with red roofing paper.
Aleza Lake

From Broadaxe to Clay Chinking
Chapter 23: From Giscome to Hutton

St Brigid's Catholic Church at Aleza Lake

From Broadaxe to Clay Chinking
Chapter 23: From Giscome to Hutton

The Robinson house at Sinclair Mills, built and lived in by Wynt Ganton. 1934

From Broadaxe to Clay Chinking
Chapter 23: From Giscome to Hutton

Mr and Mrs Robinson

Courtesy of Ted Robinson

From Broadaxe to Clay Chinking
Chapter 23: From Giscome to Hutton

The Haws family - Back: Josie and Bill Haws; Front: Joe, Charlie, Mary

Courtesy of Jack Boudreau

From Broadaxe to Clay Chinking
Chapter 23: From Giscome to Hutton

The Haws house 1940. Hutton, B.C. - Courtesy of Jack Boudreau

From Broadaxe to Clay Chinking
Chapter 23: From Giscome to Hutton

Balazics house – the house with a “broken back” 1970

Courtesy of Jack Boudreau