About This Document

Course tuition costs and student fee listing for Domestic students in the 2026-27 academic year, prepared and distributed by the Office of the Registrar.

Version: 2026-07-09-09-00 For the latest version visit www.cnc.bc.ca/admissions

Notes

These rates are effective for all tuition and student fees belonging to the 2026-27 academic year or invoiced on or after August 1, 2026.

Senior Citizens (over age 65) are exempt from tuition if conditions are met. All other fees must be paid. See CNC's Tuition Waiver for Seniors policy at www.cnc.bc.ca/about/policies.

Not all courses listed will be available every term. Courses offered in a particular term might vary without notice.

Certain deposit fees are fully refundable upon completion of the course and return of all loaned equipment in acceptable condition. They are intended to cover repairs/replacements for any equipment damage or loss.

Material fees cover additional supplies required for the course, such as welding materials or consumables like gloves. They may apply to multiple courses but may only be charged once per semester.

The Student Union Health and Dental Plan is applied to eligible students according to program and each student's registration. While this document aims to forecast when this fee may be charged, exceptions and anomalies may apply.

Disclaimer

We do our best to provide the most accurate and up-to-date information, but all tuition costs and student fees are subject to change without notice and are not guaranteed.
