- You can only get one PGWP in your lifetime
- You must submit your application for the PGWP within 180 days of when your final marks are issued
- If your SP will expire prior to receiving your final grades, you should apply for a short Study Permit (SP) extension

Who is Not PGWP Eligible?

<https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/study-canada/work/after-graduation/eligibility.html>

▼ Who's not eligible for a PGWP

You aren't eligible for a PGWP if you

- already received a PGWP
- studied English or French as a second language
- took general interest or self-improvement courses
- completed a non-credit program of study (except for a flight school program)
- received funding or a scholarship from GAC that requires you to return to your home country after graduation
- completed over 50% of your study program through distance learning (online courses, e-learning or correspondence)
 - Note: You may still be eligible for a PGWP if you could only study online from outside Canada because of COVID-19.
- completed a study program at a non-Canadian institution located in Canada
- completed a course or program of study at a DLI that is not PGWP-eligible
 - This includes programs delivered on behalf of a PGWP-eligible DLI through a curriculum licensing agreement (also known as public private partnerships, or P3s). Check the special cases for exceptions.

Who is PGWP Eligible?

<https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/study-canada/work/after-graduation/eligibility.html>

General eligibility

You meet the general eligibility requirement to apply for a PGWP if

- you completed a program of study at a PGWP-eligible designated learning institution that was at least 8 months long (or 900 hours for Quebec programs)
- you maintained full-time status as a student in Canada during each semester of your study program
 - You may study part-time during your final semester.
- you apply for your PGWP within 180 days of confirmation that you completed your program of study
- your study permit was valid at some point during the 180 days after you completed your program of study

Check the special cases to learn if exceptions to the general eligibility requirements apply to your situation.

Field of Study Eligibility Requirement

<https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/study-canada/work/after-graduation/eligibility/field-of-study.html>

How to meet the field of study requirement

You must graduate from a program that's on the list of currently eligible Classification of Instructional Programs \(CIP\) codes when you submit your

- study permit application or
- PGWP application

Eligible fields of study are linked to certain jobs in long-term shortage in Canada and can change based on the needs of the Canadian labour market. If your CIP code is not on the list of currently eligible codes when you apply for a PGWP, it may still be eligible based on when you submitted your study permit application.

* If you applied for your study permit before November 1, 2024, and you did not change your DLI, the field of study requirement does not apply to you.

Language Proficiency Eligibility Requirement

<https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/study-canada/work/after-graduation/eligibility/language-results.html>

Starting November 1, 2024, everyone applying for PGWP must submit proof of language proficiency for either English or French.

- This includes PGWP applicants from IELTS-exempt countries
- Test results must be no more than 2 years old

▼ If you graduated from a college program or other non-university program

Language requirement:

You must prove your English or French language skills with a minimum level of Canadian Language Benchmarks (CLB) 5 in English or Niveaux de compétence linguistique canadiens (NCLC) 5 in French in all 4 language areas.

Find out what your language level is based on your language test results.

Proof of language results

You must demonstrate your skill in each of the following abilities:

- reading
- writing
- listening
- speaking

Your test results must be less than 2 years old when you submit your application. We accept language test results from these tests:

English	French
CELPIP: Canadian English Language Proficiency Index Program • You should take the CELPIP-General test.	TEF Canada: Test d'évaluation de français
IELTS: International English Language Testing System • You should take the IELTS General Training option.	TCF Canada: Test de connaissance du français

Your letter of explanation is your chance to explain anything about your application that the immigration officer may find confusing or concerning about your eligibility for PGWP.

For example:

- The purpose of your application
- Working during regularly scheduled breaks
- If you transferred to CNC from another school or if you took courses outside of your DLI (eg: TRU, UNBC)
- If you switched programs
- If you had academic difficulties (e.g.: failed many courses, if you were on academic probation or required to withdraw (RTW) status)
- If you ever exceeded the number of hours you are allowed to work
- Taking an authorized leave due to medical reasons or family emergency
- Taking an unauthorized leave, deferral, or part time semester
- Add additional documents (e.g.: employment or educational history from IMM-5710)
- If you have any documents pending
- If you are including supporting documents for any of the above

It is recommended that everyone applying for PGWP includes a letter of explanation.

Upload your Letter of Explanation and any supporting documents under “Client Information”

Letter of Explanation Template Example

- Your writing should be clear, direct, and concise
- Your letter should be organized and should have no spelling, grammar, or content errors
- Write formally, but do not include really complex vocabulary when simple, straight-forward vocabulary is enough
- Your writing should be 1 page or less (or 500 words)

Work Permit for Spouses (SOWP)

<https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/work-canada/special-instructions/spouses-dependent-children/eligibility.html>

Your spouse's eligibility for an open work permit after you graduate depends on the job that you (the principal applicant) holds at the time of the application

Open work permits for family members of foreign workers

Who can apply

Your family member's eligibility depends on

- whether you're on a pathway to or have already applied for permanent residence
- what type of worker you are in Canada
 - any high-skilled occupations in training, education, experience and responsibilities (TEER) categories 0 or 1
 - Find your National Occupation Classification \(NOC\) code and TEER.
 - select high-skilled occupations in TEER 2
 - select high-skilled occupations in TEER 3
 - working on a significant investment project \(SIP\) in British Columbia

► Select high-skilled occupations in TEER 2

► Select high-skilled occupations in TEER 3

► Significant investment projects in British Columbia as of March 23, 2026

► Spouses or common-law partners of temporary workers who applied for permanent selection under the Programme de sélection des travailleurs qualifiés as of June 5, 2026

If your family member is not eligible to apply for an open work permit, they may be eligible to apply for another type of work permit. If they don't plan to work, they may be eligible to visit or study.

Know Your NOC Code

<https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/immigrate-canada/express-entry/eligibility/find-national-occupation-code.html>

- TEER categories is a way for the government to classify job occupations on a scale of 0 – 5
- It is generally recommended that you aim for a job from NOC 0 – 3 category
- Your NOC code is especially important if you'd like your spouse to be eligible for SOWP, or if you plan to apply for Permanent Residence (PR) in the future

TEER categories and examples of jobs

TEER	Occupation types	Examples
TEER 0	Management occupations	Advertising, marketing and public relations managers Financial managers
TEER 1	Occupations that usually require a university degree	Financial advisors Software engineers
